THREE MONTHS IN JAIL ENDED FOR MRS. J. A. LILLEY

Held Here Until Released Today by Jury in Lunacy Inquest.

She Suddenly Became Confused at Union Station.

ON HER WAY TO HAWESVILLE

After three months' confinement in the county jail during which time city and court officials have endeavored to get relatives to come for her, Mrs. J. A. Lilley, a woman, whom the police took up at the Union station because they considered her helpless and unable to reach her destination, was this morning ordered sent to her former home at Smithfield, Mo., after a jury had declared that she was not a lunatic. Mrs. Lilley had $10 in money when taken into custody and the fare to Smithfield was only $11.50.

According to Deputy Jailor Harvey Martin, who became interested and corresponded with Mrs. Lilley's son, the old lady is not the least dangerous. It was shown by the evidence at the lunacy inquest that she knew where she wanted to go when taken up, and that her people were willing for her to attempt the trip alone.

Mrs. Lilley came to Paducah on the Fowler from Cairo and owned two big trunks. Leaving her baggage at the wharfboat, she went to the Union station and there became bewildered and did not know how to get her baggage and get a ticket to her destination, which she said was Hawesville. She was taken to the county jail, where she has been cared for by jail officials.

The same jury which refused to order Mrs. Lilley to the asylum was empowered to try Mattie Morton and John Pritchett, colored, on lunacy charges. They were ordered to the asylum. Pritchett imagines an insurance company owes him $700 on an insurance policy on the lives of his children, both of whom are living. The woman is supposed to be a "crazy friend."

MRS. H. H. DULBY ALMOST OVERCOME SAVING JEWELRY

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 29.—(Special.)—In a fire in her boarding house, on Fifth street, today, Mrs. H. H. Dulby, wife of a Paducah physician, went back to her room to get some forgotten jewelry and was overcome by smoke. She was carried out unconscious by firemen just in time to save her life.

Law and Order Wins

Cerulean Springs, Ky., Aug. 29.—(Special.)—A decided victory was gained by the law and order element of the Third Judicial district today, when the Democratic committee refused to call a primary election to nominate candidates for circuit judge and commonwealth's attorney for November 3. Had the primary been called, as was stated, night riders would undoubtedly have controlled the election and such a movement was opposed by the law-abiding Democrats. Judge Cook and Attorney Smith are candidates for re-election and their supporters among the county newspapers advocated the primary this fall.

Blackhand

Chicago, Aug. 29.—Michael Diapinto, a barber, was shot and killed in his shop. A stranger opened the door and fired and escaped. Diapinto received two black hand letters, demanding money.

Little Miss Ella Massengale, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Massengale, of the Mayfield road, had her right foot burned yesterday afternoon. She was walking in the yard, when she stepped into a bed of live coals. The burns are not considered serious.

Another Incendiary Fire Causes Loss of Sixty Thousand Dollars at Murray Early This Morning

Soldiers and Volunteer Bucket Brigade Prevent Spread of Flames in Both Directions—Half Insured.

Bank of Murray, new bank building, almost completed, $10,000, no insurance.
A. Q. Knight & Son, stock of dry goods, $20,000, $12,000 insurance.
W. W. Stubbfield, clothing, $12,000, $4,000 insurance.
W. L. Whitnell, storehouse, $5,000, $1,500 insurance.
Talen Miller, storehouse, $5,000, $1,500 insurance.
Adjacent buildings and stocks damaged by fire, smoke and water, $10,000, partially insured.
J. A. Parker, jewelry store, damaged $300; insured.

MURRAY, Ky., Aug. 29.—(Special.)—Two business houses, containing large stocks of dry goods and clothing and the fine new building being erected by the Bank of Murray and nearly completed, were destroyed by a fire that started on the lower floor in the rear of the A. Q. Knight & Son dry goods store at 1 o'clock this morning, and is generally conceded to be of incendiary origin.

That the finest and best business block in Murray was not destroyed was due to the great work of Murray's famous bucket brigade, which successfully combated the fire against great odds, and in face of the fact that citizens did not turn out for some time in response to the usual way of giving a fire alarm by discharging firearms. It was feared that night riders had made good their threat to raid the town and people stayed indoors until it was learned that there was no mob in town. Though people here are not likely to accuse, it is generally believed that some one gained an entrance into the back door and fired the Knight store.

When first discovered, the fire had not gained much headway, but before the soldiers stationed here under Captain Carl Henderson, of Marion, who answered the first alarm, were reinforced by citizens, the Knight store was almost a total loss and the fire had spread to the building occupied by W. W. Stubbfield as a clothing store and to the new bank building. Murray's only water supply for the business section is a deep well in the court yard and the private water works system of the Murray hotel, which is in the block where the fire broke out. The gasoline engines were started going and citizens carried water buckets, tubs and other vessels taken from the stores and fought the flames. That such a force could stop a fire and confine it to three buildings was not hoped for at the outset and Chief Wood, of the Paducah department, was appealed to by Mayor Hughes. On account of the failure of the department here to get an engine to carry a special train, no help was sent, although efforts were being made to leave Paducah when information was sent that the fire was under control.

The losses.
The Bank of Murray, the new building which was being erected by Contractor Welkel, of Paducah, and nearly complete, was probably the heaviest single loss, not a dollar of insurance being on the building, valued at $10,000. Elvie Copeland, of Paducah, was freewheeling the walls.

BARDWELL CLASS OF '85 IS UNITED AFTER MANY YEARS

St. Louis, Aug. 29.—John F. Kane, of Bardwell, Ky., half of the graduating class of 1885 of Clinton college, Clinton, Ky., and Miss Emma Hicks, of Kaido, O., the other half, will be married here tomorrow. The wedding is the culmination of a school romance that was broken up 23 years ago, when the class quit college and started out in the world. Kane is an attorney and has been practicing his profession at Bardwell, Ky. Miss Hicks became a Presbyterian church worker and took charge of a mission school at Huntsville, Tenn.

Early in 1907 Kane attended an alumni reunion at Clinton and learned that the other half of the class of '85 had not married. He opened correspondence with Miss Hicks and they spent their vacation that summer at Dawson Springs, Ky.

DUEL IN THE AIR.
Chicago, Aug. 29.—Evan Mench and Nicholas Vidovitch, iron workers, fought to the death on top of a blast furnace 150 feet above the ground. They quarreled over a girl and wrestled on the small platform fifteen minutes trying to throw each other into the furnace. Mench finally secured a crowbar and killed his antagonist. He was arrested on the charge of murder. Hundreds of helpless spectators witnessed the fight.

Yesterday and his work was interrupted.
A. Q. Knight & Son's stock is conservatively estimated to have been worth $20,000, with $12,000 insurance. A small portion of the stock was carried out but badly damaged and practically worthless.
W. W. Stubbfield's stock of clothing, valued at $12,000, was damaged, but a good portion of the stock downstairs was carried out. Insurance on the stock amounted to $4,000.

The building occupied by Knight & Son was owned by W. L. Whitnell, a retired tobacco dealer, who, on account of the night rider trouble in Calloway county, has advertised all his property for sale.

Talen Miller, formerly county clerk, owned the building occupied by Stubbfield's store. Both houses were valued at $5,000, with $1,500 insurance on each.

Chunn & Hicks' clothing store, adjoining Stubbfield's on the south, was slightly damaged. The stock was damaged by being carried into the streets. Parker's jewelry store, adjoining the bank building on the west, was also damaged and the stock was carried out. The stocks were carried from all the stores in the block and the damage from this source will reach $5,000, bringing the total loss to something like $60,000, with less than $20,000 insurance. The stocks were piled in the streets and court yard. Captain Henderson's men rendered valuable assistance in guarding the stocks all night, besides their work in fighting the flames.

The fire was under control at 8:30 o'clock.
Although the men fighting the fire were placed in many perilous positions but one accident occurred. H.

ALL HAVE PASSED TEACHERS' EXAM. IN CITY SCHOOLS

All of the teachers that took the examination for teachers' certificates have passed with high percentages and certificates will be awarded to the following: Misses Anna Bird Stewart, Frances Clark, Ethel Hawkins, Emma Mason, Inez Bell, Clara Winston, Lucy Moore, Mabel Roberts, Myrtle Henable, Ernestine Lowery, Ruth Hall, Catherine Thomas, Myrtle Knight and Mrs. Fannie Taylor. The examiners, Mrs. John J. Jordan, Prof. J. S. Ragsdale and Superintendent J. A. Carnegie, said the papers were among the best they had ever examined, and were pleased. The work will not be completed until late this afternoon, but at 2 o'clock every teacher had made a grade that warranted the announcement that all had passed. The class of certificate each teacher has won probably will not be known until Monday. Most of the teachers that took the examination are new ones.

Racer Hurt

Milan, Italy, Aug. 29. Pietro Dorando, the disqualified winner of the Marathon race, broke his right leg on a bicycle fall and cannot race again.

REDWINE'S SKILL PICKING JURIES IS RECOGNIZED

Jackson, Ky., Aug. 29. (Special.)—During an examination by Judge Redwine this morning, Sam Clemens said Redwine was spoken of as the most likely man to influence the jury for bench Hargis. He had heard it said Redwine knew how to pick a jury.

BENIGN POLICY IN PHILIPPINES AMERICAN IDEA

William H. Taft Lands Men Who Sacrificed Lives and Health in Islands.

Says They Are Entitled to Places on Roll of Honor.

SPEAKS TO OLD VETERANS

Athens, O., Aug. 29.—William H. Taft delivered a ten minute address to the civil and Spanish war veterans at the state reunion. He declared men lost their lives and health in the Philippines and they are entitled to the same gratitude the country feels toward those who lost their lives and health in the civil war. They sacrificed themselves for the maintenance of a benignant policy of the country toward the Philippines, hearing them a higher civilization and opportunity to fit themselves for self-government. The men are entitled to a place in the roll of honor.

ESCAPE WAS EASY.

Leavenworth, Kan., Aug. 29.—Fred Proctor, serving a life sentence in the Kansas penitentiary for killing a woman at Shawnee, Okla., escaped. Proctor was employed in the kitchen and stole clothes of the warden's son and walked out the front door. There were 815 in the clothes. Rewards are offered and the entire police force is hunting him.

Brown Receivership

New York, Aug. 29.—Federal Judge Holt has appointed Congressman Littlefield, of Maine, receiver of A. O. Brown & company, and his bond fixed at $250,000.

Driven Out by Riders

Hopkinsville, Va., Aug. 29.—S. P. Mosely, of Roaring Springs, who has upon more than one occasion been the victim of night riders' depredations, has sold his farm in that neighborhood for $5,000 and is now looking for a new location.

Child Scalded

While playing in the kitchen last night about 6 o'clock, Marvin Too, the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Too, 620 George street, overturned a pot of boiling water and scalded his body and arms. His right arm was scalded worst, but all parts of his body were scalded until the skin came off. Dr. W. H. Washburn was called and gave soothing ointments. As the child is much improved today it is thought that the injuries will not be fatal. A baby was playing with Marvin at the time, but it escaped the boiling water.

CAR BUILDERS OF I. C. EXCHANGE BY MUTUAL CONSENT

T. M. Haughn, master car builder at the Paducah shops of the Illinois Central, and C. N. Grate, holding a like position at the Louisville shops, have by agreement been transferred. Mr. Haughn has been general foreman of the car repairing department at the shops for seven years, coming here from his home in Louisville in February, 1901, during Paducah's famous "white week." He is the eldest general foreman at the local shops and has seen several master mechanics come and go. Mr. Haughn formerly held the same position in Louisville and Mr. Grate was at one time head foreman under Mr. Haughn at the Paducah shops (being promoted from that position, which is now held by George Bennett, to the general foremanship at Louisville).

The change is acceptable to Mr. Haughn because of the fact that his children live with their grandparents in Louisville and he will be with them. During his administration here Mr. Haughn has been popular, having a wide acquaintance in the city, and many friends will regret to know that he will leave. He is one of the best car builders in the country and an affable gentleman.

Mr. Grate has a family and will move to Paducah at once, as the change is to take place next Tuesday.

Mayor Smith Will Await Action of General Council Before Getting Any More Warrants For Standard

City Solicitor of Opinion That He Should See Whether Legislative Department Intends to Order Tanks Out of City.

Having secured one fine against the Standard Oil company for violating the city ordinance by storing large quantities of oil, where it is exposed to ignition from passing locomotives at Tenth and Monroe streets, the executive department of the city is disposed to await the conclusion of the general council as to the proper disposition of the plant.

"My duty was plain when I learned that the company was violating the law by storing excessive quantities of oil inside the city," said Mayor Smith, "but the purpose of the law is not to provide revenue for the city through fines, but to prevent the storage of such enormous quantities of oil inside the city. The case is appealed and should come up the latter part of September in the circuit court. Now, the question is whether, in view of the fact that the general council has the matter before it, I should proceed and secure warrants against the company every day or await the council's action. I think, if the appeal is decided in our favor, there will be no trouble in making the company move."

Mayor Smith inquired of City Solicitor Campbell what he thought. "I should wait on the general council," said the solicitor, "for this reason. The matter is before the committee and I have secured information concerning the disposition of tanks in other cities as directed by the general council and am ready to report as soon as the committee meets. Now, the council may, by ordinance of general application, compel the Standard Oil company to remove its plant from the city. In that case the procedure will be simplified. It may be that, on the other hand, the general council will decide that the company may safely remain where it is. In that event, a multitude of fines in the police court, if appealed, would place us in an embarrassing position before the court."

"As to what disposition should be made, I shall not make recommendation further than to report what I have learned. It is a simple question of what is just under the circumstances. If the presence of the tanks inside the city is an actual menace, they should be ordered moved. If they do not constitute a real, actual danger, the concern should not be needlessly harassed, but that is a matter for the general council to decide."

MANY VICTIMS OF FLOOD ARE FOUND HIDDEN IN SAND

Trinidad, Col., Aug. 29.—Eight more bodies are reported recovered from Folsom. The known dead reported are 23. It is feared the number will reach 40. Searchers are examining ruined homes and searching along the Cimarron river. It is believed many are buried in the sands. The town is badly damaged. It is feared the food supply will fall and other towns are rushing relief.

The first train from Folsom arrived this afternoon. It required 24 hours to travel 100 miles, because of damaged tracks. Passengers report 25 bodies recovered and many missing. The dead will exceed 50.

POLICE JUDGE CROSS ASSESSES HEAVY FINE AND LEAVISON CO. TAKES APPEAL

City has been victorious and this is the third defendant that has been fined.

The firm was charged with selling non-intoxicating drinks, analyzed by Milton Goodman, a city chemist of Louisville, and found to contain over two per cent of alcohol. When the trial was called yesterday a demurrer was filed by the defense, stating that the city charter did not grant a right to tax articles that were not mentioned. The second point was that the wholesale dealers' liquor license should clothe the firm with the right to sell the beverage. The third point was that the ordinance was an unreasonable regulation.

After he had assessed the fine of $100 and costs, which is the limit prescribed by the ordinance, Judge Cross said:

"The city has been flooded with advertisements of what Judge Cross said was not intoxicating, but I want to say that I did not say that. For the past six months there have been trials of men who are alleged to have sold goods containing alcohol without a license, but in each case a jury has been chosen and I have not dismissed a case. In several cases witnesses have sworn that they did not know what they bought, have said it did not intoxicate them, that they did not know where they bought it and the bottles did not contain any labels. Under these conditions I did instruct a jury to dismiss the case. If these advertisements are not discontinued I will issue a rule for contempt."

Mr. Carl Leigh Recovers.
Mr. Carl Leigh, who was injured on the head by diving in shallow water in Lake Michigan, is recovering rapidly and is now able to walk about the house. In a few weeks he will be able to be out on the streets. His injury will not be permanent, his many Paducah friends will be glad to learn.

DEATH RELIEVES MRS. E. A. GREER THIS MORNING

Widow of Prominent Lawyer Passes Away Peacefully at Her Home.

Mrs. Theresa Gerlach, Native of Germany.

MRS. LILLIE MAUZY IS DEAD

Mrs. Elmona Adelaide Greer died this morning at 3 o'clock at her residence, 321 North Fifth street, after a three weeks' illness of blood poison, caused from a bone felon on her hand. Death came very quietly, as Mrs. Greer had not been conscious for 24 hours before her death.

Mrs. Greer was the widow of the late Judge W. D. Greer, who died in May. Mrs. Greer was born and reared in Frankfort. Her maiden name was Miss Elmona Adelaide Epperson. She lived at Frankfort until her marriage in 1863 to Judge W. D. Greer, when they moved to Smithland. They lived at Smithland seven years and then moved to Paducah in 1875 and had lived here ever since.

Mrs. Greer was considered the most beautiful woman in the western part of Kentucky and she retained her beauty through her life. In her girlhood days she became a member of the Christiana church and was always an earnest worker. Mrs. Greer was a faithful and loyal member of the First Christian church of Paducah. Her devotion to her family and to her grandchildren was one of Mrs. Greer's many good characteristics. Mrs. Greer was self-sacrificing in her help to others and her deeds of charity were many.

Mrs. and Mrs. Greer were the parents of five children, but two died in infancy. The children surviving Mrs. Greer are: Mrs. Ed L. Atkins, of Enid, Okla.; Miss Virgie Greer, of this city, and Mrs. George Foster Batterson, of Enid, Okla. She has four grandchildren, Mrs. Elizabeth Graham, Ed L. Atkins, Jr., Grace Atkins and Elmona Atkins, all of Enid, Okla. Mrs. Greer is a cousin of Mr. James Miles, of Frankfort, and Judge Ira Julian, of Frankfort.

Mrs. Atkins and Mrs. Batterson did not arrive from Enid, Okla., until this morning.

The funeral of Mrs. Greer will be held at the First Christian church. The services will be conducted by the Rev. S. B. Moore and the Rev. W. E. Cave. The burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

The honorary pallbearers are: Messrs. Judge J. K. Hendrick, Judge William Marble, Judge W. A. Berry, Dr. Frank Boyd, Dr. H. P. Sights and Mr. A. B. Sewell.

The active pallbearers are: Messrs. Rodney Davis, John Burnett, E. G. Hoone, Will Hughes, Jim Utterback, C. K. Wheeler, W. E. Covington and E. H. Puryear.

Mrs. Theresa Gerlach.

Mrs. Theresa Gerlach, a pioneer resident of Paducah, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Clarke, in Tyler. Mrs. Gerlach was 84 years old and was a native of Germany. The cause of her death was general debility. She has been a resident of this city 63 years, excepting several years when she lived at Chattanooga. She is well known in Paducah for her many kind acts and is survived by her one daughter and a number of relatives in this country and in Germany. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at St. Francis de Sales church, of which Mrs. Gerlach was an active member. The burial will be in Mt. Carmel cemetery.

Mrs. Lillie Mauzy.

Mrs. Lillie Mauzy, the wife of J. R. Mauzy, died last night at 8 o'clock at their home, 1345 Langstaff avenue, of a complication of diseases. Mrs. Mauzy was 32 years old and leaves, besides her husband, two small boys and one brother, John Adams. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The burial will take place at Oak Grove cemetery. The Rev. J. R. Clark will officiate.

New Hospital Elevator

Riverside hospital will have the first electric elevator run by alternating current that has been installed in the city. The board of directors of Riverside hospital met and awarded the contract to the Warner Elevator company for $1,440. The elevator will be shipped immediately. The contract for the wiring was let to the Western Kentucky Electrical company for $23. J. O. Kessler, superintendent of the city plant, was instructed by the board to run a third wire to the hospital from the sewer pump for the elevator.

S.S.S. NATURE'S PERFECT TONIC

There is scarcely any one, no matter how vigorous and healthy, who does not need a tonic sometimes. Little physical irregularities upset the system, the appetite fails, digestion is poor, the body feels tired and worn out, and other unpleasant symptoms give warning that the system is disordered and needs assistance to ward off, perhaps, some serious sickness or ailment. S. S. S. is recognized everywhere as the best of all tonics, nature's medicine, made of healing, cleansing, invigorating roots and herbs, a systemic remedy without an equal. S. S. S. has the additional value of being the greatest of all blood purifiers. It re-establishes the healthy circulation of the blood, rids the body of that tired, worn-out feeling, improves the appetite and digestion, and brings about a return of health to those whose systems have been weakened or depleted. S. S. S. acts more promptly and pleasantly than any other medicine, and those who are run down in health should commence its use at once. It will thoroughly purify the blood and tone up the system. S. S. S. is admirably suited for a systemic remedy because it is free from minerals; it may be used without harmful results by persons of any age, and no unpleasant effects ever follow.

The Week In Society.

She Was Not Yuh.

"They told me that you're yuh," he said.
His voice was soft and low.
"I should be sorry, dear, to learn that this was really so."
He tossed her head. "This not my fault."
She cried. "That is quite clear. You know, I only see myself. As others see me, dear." T. M.

Knights Tournament Is Promising Event.

The leading social event of this fall, rivaling previous horse show entertainments seen here, will be an innovation in Paducah and plans for its success are now in progress.
The entertainment, the first of its kind ever seen in this city, will be a revival of the joust or a knights tournament such as was portrayed by the skitful pen of Sir Walter Scott in "Ivanhoe." The date for this event of the high social life here has been set for October 6, although there might be some delay.

This new entertainment was decided upon Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of the Daughters of Confederacy with Mrs. James Keger, president. The proceeds will be used for the monument fund being raised by that society for the erection of monuments in the city.

Young men from Mayfield, Murray, Fulton, Benton and other surrounding towns will take part in the tournament, besides the young society men of Paducah. The tournament will probably be held on the West End race track and in the afternoon of August 16. The young men discussed as knights will compete upon horseback with spears in the big arena, the winner crowning the selected queen and winning her hand.

As Paducah will not have a horse show this year the tournament will draw even larger crowds. It is expected. Some of the finest breeds of horses will be seen here taking part in the show. The coming event has caused much favorable comment here and will be awaited with interest.

On the night of the tournament a

Links building for the contestants and their ladies.

Wileox-Shreve Engagement.

The engagement of Miss Marie Brown Wileox to Professor Charles H. Shreve of Boston, Mass. The wedding will take place next Thursday at the home of Miss Wileox's uncle, Major J. H. Ashcraft, 714 Jefferson of Mrs. Ellen Wileox, and was a street. Miss Wileox is the daughter teacher at the Jefferson school last year. She is a member of the 1906 graduating class of the Paducah High school. Prof. Shreve is a graduate of Harvard college and has been in charge of science in the high school for two years. He resigned in June to accept a similar but better position with the Duquesne, Pa., high school. Miss Wileox and Prof. Shreve are both very popular in Paducah.

Smith-Dennis.

Miss Ida Smith, of Melber, and Mr. Irvin T. Dennis, of Mississippi, were married Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the Commercial hotel by the Rev. H. H. Terry, pastor of the Third Street Methodist church. They were attended by Mr. D. H. Griffith and Miss Lena House of Melber.

Fowler-Craig.

Miss Lulu Fowler of Somerset, and Mr. S. P. Craig of Paducah, were married Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mr. F. E. Craig, 815 North Tenth street. A reception followed the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Craig will make their home in Paducah.

Party Enjoys River Trip.

Tuesday a party took in the round trip to Cairo on the steamer Dick Fowler, and the well filled lunch baskets and the fresh river breeze afforded a great pleasure. Those in the party were:

The Misses Gene Morris, Elizabeth Satter, Elsie Hodges, Garnette Buckner, Lillie Holman, Rosebud Hobson, Carrie Truheart, of Louisville; Pauline Kenton, Mrs. Nettie Roth and Mr. and Mrs. of Louisville, and Mrs. David Flournoy and daughter, Miss Irene.

Complimentary to Guest.

Miss Anna Virgin of 284 Clements street entertained Wednesday night, complimentary to her guest, Miss Agnes Hall of Metropolis.

The home and lawn was appropriately decorated, and after pleasant conversation and refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Agnes Day, Clara Butler, Nell Watson, Eunice Charles, Lizzie Dunmire, Belle Stenwell, Lottie Luffin, Nora Green, Anna Virgin, Vivian Quarles, Harry Pector, Silas Howard, Ollie Harner, Harry Watson, K. Finley, William Elch, and Kelly Franklin.

Mrs. Vogt Entertains.

Mrs. Tony Vogt entertained last Monday evening in honor of her mother, Miss Anna Stevens of Louisville. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out very prettily in the decoration of the house and also in the refreshments.

Benefactor Club Dance.

The Benefactor club gave a dance at the Wallace park pavilion last Tuesday night. About thirty-five couples attended and a fine time was enjoyed.

Belmont Seminary.

Two more Paducah girls will attend Belmont Seminary, Washington, D. C., in October. The young ladies are Miss Mary B. Jennings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jennings, and Miss Mamie Baner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baner.

Miss Morrow Entertains.

Miss Ethel Morrow entertained formally Wednesday morning at cards at her home, 612 Broadway, in honor of Mrs. Herman Nettie Roth of Louisville. A delectable luncheon was served at noon.

Surprise Party.

A delightful surprise party was given to Miss Ada Reber Wednesday night at her home on Clark street, by a party of her young friends. During the evening games were played and singing and dancing were enjoyed. Refreshments were served in the dining room. The yard was decorated with Japanese lanterns. Those present were: Loreta Grief, Geraldine Lee, Maggie Williams, Jessie Rogers, Lorena Graham.

THE STOLEN HORSE.

An Old Proverb With a New Application.

The words are full of "so-called" remedies for badness. You may call anything in creation a remedy, but to use them is like locking the stable after the horse is stolen.

Badness and Dandruff are caused by a germ—if you don't kill the germ the germ will kill the hair. Scientists have labored with the problem of a preventative for baldness for many years.

Newbro's Hairdye is the product of a modern idea, and will cure Dandruff and prevent baldness because germs cannot exist when you apply Herpelde.

Herpelde is a valuable hair dressing and scalp disinfectant as well as a cure for Dandruff.

Sold by leading druggists. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpelde Co., Detroit, Mich.—H. W. Walker, Co., Special Agents.

Miss Houston, Ross Whitelut, Maggie Yopp, Ada Reber, Mr. Edward Wurtz, Louis Grief, Elmer Engert, Blaine Houston, Ernest Engert, Hershel Ellis, Stanley Burgess, John Ellis, Lloyd Yopp, Charlie Whitelut, Lloyd Cobb, Tuttle Lockwood, James Lee, Clifford Dudley, George Ernhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Engert, Mr. and Mrs. George Yopp and Mr. and Mrs. L. Reber.

A musical entertainment was given last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Johnston, at 712 South Eleventh street, in honor of Miss Pocahontas Foster. The guests were: Misses Ruth Reams, Ima Phillips, Maudie Blackwell, Jessie Watts, Pocahontas Foster, of Greenway, Ark.; Nora Simpson, Oia Johnston and Ella Chandler; Messrs. Cye Leigh, Claude Whitte, Carlyle Beck, Ollie Houser, Oia Hinchelison, Orwin Johnston and Oren Johnston. Delightful refreshments were served.

Mission Society.

The Foreign Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church met Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock with Mrs. David Yelver in Arcadia. There were a large number of ladies present and a very fine meeting was held. Light refreshments were served after the meeting and a social hour was spent.

U. D. F. Meeting.

The United Daughters of Confederates will hold their September meeting on Tuesday next with Mrs. R. H. Phillips and Mrs. John L. Webb as hostesses.

In Honor of Mrs. Kuttaw.

Of the many pleasant gatherings in honor of Mrs. George Kuttaw, of Louisville, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robert Finney, the delightful picnic luncheon at Wallace park on Tuesday evening, August 25, was among the most enjoyable. Those present were: Mrs. George Kuttaw and children, Marie and Virgil, of Louisville; Messrs. and Mrs. James Robert Finney and daughter, Ira Sans and children, Dan Orr and son, W. B. Acker and son, E. A. Wheeler and children, H. L. Judd and son, Mrs. James McCarthy, Mrs. Aysa Berry, Misses Emma and Margaret Acker, and Master Bennett Acker.

For Mayfield Girl.

Miss Louche Sutcliffe entertained informally Friday afternoon at her home, 714 Broadway, in honor of Miss Elizabeth Anderson, of Mayfield. Those present were: Misses Elsie Anderson, of Mayfield; Miss Newman, of Jackson, Tenn.; Sara Corbett, Hannah Corbett, Gladys Cohn, Elen Boswell, Martha Cope, Sadie Campbell, Grace Hicks, Anna Hayes, Mary H. Jennings, Lucile Harsh, Irma Yelver, Azilee Reeves, Grace McGinnis, Helen Van Meter, Mary Wheeler, Margaret Carney.

Fifth Birthday.

Little Miss Nell Simmons Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Craig, is hostess this afternoon to a party of young friends between the hours of 2:30 and 6 o'clock, in honor of her fifth birthday. Little Miss Craig entertained at the home of her grandparents, Captain and Mrs. W. C. Clark, 1311 Broadway.

HEART FLUTTERS

AFTER FUNCTIONS HAD CLOSED THREE MINUTES.

One Throat Back to Life by Application of Powerful Stimulant.

New York, Aug. 29.—Oscar Culver was dead for three minutes in the Eastern District hospital, Brooklyn, yesterday. Then, by means of a powerful heart stimulant and artificial respiration to get his lungs into play again, the doctors brought him back to life. His heart was beating, he was breathing late last night, but his hold on life was most precarious.

Culver is twenty-nine years old. He has been in bad health a long time, but to four weeks ago he worked in a colling-mill. His physicians found that Culver had consumption, complicated by rheumatism, and a fortnight ago had him removed to the hospital. Last night the nurses in the ward reported that Culver was dead.

It happened luckily for Culver that Dr. Michael Jaffer, of the visiting staff, was in the office. Dr. Jaffer, of course, believed Culver was dead, but he said he wanted to see the body and try an experiment. He hurried to the ward where Culver lay, and made some of the tests for death. The pupils of Culver's eyes did not respond to irritation. He was pulseless at his wrists; his heart was not beating; he had ceased to breathe; to all appearances, he was as dead as a man could be. Still, hurriedly, Dr. Jaffer injected under the skin and over the heart of the seeming corpse one-tenth of a grain of strychnine. Instantly, too, Dr. Jaffer performed artificial respiration, trying to inflate and empty Culver's lungs systematically, as in natural breathing. Three minutes had elapsed since Mrs. Ryan thought Culver had died, when he sighed ever so faintly. All the doctors heard the astonishing news and hurried to his cot; they relieved each other in keeping up artificial respiration. Pretty soon, Dr. Jaffer, listening intently, heard Culver's heart flutter; then, feeling his radial artery, the doctor detected a slow, weak pulse. Pretty soon Culver breathed less weakly and his heart beat more regularly. Then he opened his eyes and stared fixedly into the world from which, by all signs known to medical men, made his departure.

CITY ORDINANCE

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE ALLEY RUNNING BETWEEN TENNESSEE AND JONES STREETS AND ELEVENTH AND TWELFTH STREETS, IN THE CITY OF PADUCAH, KENTUCKY, BY GRADING AND GRAVELING OF SAME.

Be It Ordained by the General Council of the City of Paducah, Kentucky:

Sec. 1. That the alley running between Tennessee and Jones streets and Eleventh and Twelfth streets, in the City of Paducah, Kentucky, be, and the same is hereby ordered to be constructed of good cement gravel, suitable in all respects for such original construction; all to be done in strict accordance with the plans, grades, specifications, widths, and profiles of the City Engineer, made and provided by him for such purpose, all of which are adopted as a part of this ordinance as fully as if embodied herein or attached hereto and made a part hereof, and are marked "A" for more specific identification.

Sec. 2. That said work shall be constructed under the direction of the Board of Public Works and the supervision of the City Engineer, and shall be commenced at a time designated by contract for the performance of said work, and completed on or before three (3) months after the passage, approval and publication of this ordinance.

Sec. 3. The cost of such construction of said alley shall be paid for wholly by the property owners abutting or fronting thereon on both sides thereof, to be apportioned to and assessed against the property and property owners abutting thereon on both sides thereof, according to the number of front feet abutting thereon, except the City of Paducah shall pay the entire cost of all intersections of streets and public alleys, if any such there be.

Sec. 4. The contractor awarded the contract for the work herein provided for shall be paid only upon estimates furnished by the City Engineer, and approved by the Board of Public Works in accordance with the terms of the contract made by the contractor awarded said contract and the City of Paducah for said work, and in no other way.

Sec. 5. This ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage, approval and publication.

Witness and Lawyer.

An old plasterer is called upon to give evidence for the plaintiff. Counsel for the defendant tries to bully him.

"Your name is John Dobbs?"

"Yes."

"Are you the same John Dobbs who was sentenced to eight days' imprisonment for using bad language?"

"No."

"Are you the same John Dobbs who was sentenced to a couple of years' hard labor for theft?"

"No, that wasn't me, either."

"Then you have never been in prison?"

"Yes, twice."

"Ah! and how long the first time?"

"One whole afternoon."

"What!—and the second time?"

"Only one hour."

"And, pray, what offense had you committed to deserve so small a punishment?"

"I was sent to prison to whitewash a cell to accommodate a lawyer who had cheated one of his clients."

stantial evidence.

A SIMPLE ISSUE.

It looks like a simple issue that is
up to the general council in reference to the Standard Oil tanks at Tenth and Monroe streets. Since the plant was ignited by sparks from a passing Illinois Central locomotive,
residents and property owners of the west end have demanded that the tanks be removed from the city, because they constitute a menace to their lives and property, make the property less desirable and market-
able, and increase insurance rates.
The Standard Oil company desire to maintain its tanks in the heart of the city for its own convenience. As City Solicitor Campbell said, the city
can compel the company to remove
its tanks outside the city by a law
of general application, and in his own mind it is simply a question of whether the tanks do actually constitute a menace to that part of the city. In other words, the general council has only to decide whether there is the actual danger, of which
property owners and residents complain, or whether they are simply hysterical.

It should not take the members
long to make up their minds. The Standard Oil company stores oil and gasoline in its tanks. Are these inflammable, or are they not? If they are, does that fact make their storage in large quantities dangerous?
and does the presence of the storage
tanks near the railroad, where sparks
from passing engines may ignite the plant, make them more dangerous?
Now we know the plant was once
ignited, and that the fire chief after careful investigation recommended
the removal of the plant outside the city. We know that the company
proposes to take extra precautions
hereafter, which in itself is an admission that the plant is dangerous.
We also know that the company
maintained the plant for years in open and brazen violation of the city ordinance, thus showing that the company is defiant of the law and
disregardful of the safety of the city.

If that plant, situated where it is,
is not dangerous and a menace, why
is the company promising extraordinary precautions? Other concerns
are not promising to erect fire proof
buildings, though they had better do
so, if the tanks are allowed to remain.

showed city officials through the plant and struck a lighted match into
a quantity of the oil to show that it would put out the light. A gentleman shortly afterward ostentatiously
pretended to light a pipe in the plant and he was peremptorily ordered
to desist by an employee, who said
the company has the strictest rules
against smoking around the premises. It seems that the chief danger is from the gases generated in such a plant. The ground is soaked with oil for a depth of more than a foot,
and in spite of the greatest caution,
it is never known when a catastrophe
is pending. It is said by those acquainted with the rules of the Standard Oil company, that it would frighten an ordinary man out of his wits if he knew the constant danger
of fire or explosion.

Now, why doesn't the company
wish to move?
It is more convenient for delivery
to be in the center of the city. The Standard Oil company's tanks themselves are in no more danger in the heart of the city than they would be anywhere else on a railroad. If the tanks in Paducah ignite from a locomotive and the whole city is burned, the Standard Oil company
will not be liable for its neighbor's
damages, and its own loss will not be more than it would be if the plant
was isolated, because it must have
its plant near the railroad, anyway.
It can afford to jeopardize the city
for its own convenience, as long as its own risk is not increased. It's a clear proposition from the Standard Oil company's point of view: It will stay where it is most convenient as long as it can.

Paducah citizens, who have been
traveling since this question came up,
have observed that in most other
places they passed through Standard Oil tanks are located outside the city limits, and in every case they are isolated, something easy for travelers passing through a town to ac-
certain, as the tanks are always along
the railroad.

THE NORMAL SCHOOLS.

Representatives of the state normal schools have decided to bring suit against state officials to enforce
the appropriation of $500,000 authorized by the last legislature. The attorney general held that the appor-
portionment measure was unconstitutional
and the administration refused
to further embarrass the state by creating a greater deficit, as the last administration left considerably more
warrens outstanding than cash resources, and the legislature, either
carelessly or designedly to embarrass
the present administration, neglected
to provide the money it so bountifully
appropriated for educational purposes.

We do not see what there is for either side to this controversy to do,
other than what it has decided on.
Sure the legislature didn't provide
the money, and there is none on hand, and the attorney general thinks
the state is not bound, the administration is acting wisely in refusing to conform to the directions of the legislature.

The representatives of the normal
schools, since the legislature has authorized such an appropriation,
would be doing less than their duty in
not, at least, ascertaining whether
the legal opinion of the attorney general has the sanction of the courts.
In other words, the administration
is husbanding the state's meager resources, which is its duty; and the school officials are single-mindedly
seeking to promote the cause of education, which is their duty. If the courts compel the administration to proceed in conformity with the instructions of the legislature, regardless of lack of funds, the administration is thereby absolved from responsibility and the legislature
must assume the burden of thus further stripping the state of its available resources.

If the courts uphold the attorney
general the school men will have done their whole duty, and thrown
the failure of the normal school project, where it belongs, on the general assembly.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE FAILURE OF JUSTICE.

William Traverser Jerome, who occupies the position of public prosecutor in New York, corresponding to our commonwealth's attorney, has just been exonerated by a commission of the charge of failure to do his duty in prosecuting insurance officials
and other big offenders; but as usual
much of the stigma will remain. At this distance it is impossible to judge
whether Mr. Jerome failed to justify
our impressions of his fearlessness
and honor, or whether those charges
were preferred against him by the tools of influential offenders, who found it necessary to embarrass and compromise the prosecutor. It is a local matter, anyway. The only interest we can have in it, is the lesson
it teaches. We should see to it that our commonwealth's attorney is something more than a successful
politician. We should choose a man who is fearless and of unassailable
integrity, a man who holds honor
above material success. When we complain that our officials are tampered with and justice perverted, we should recall our own responsibility
for placing in positions of trust, men who can be tampered with. Candidates for commonwealth's attorney
and other officials will be chosen this fall, and citizens of this county will have something to say in the matter.

"John I must have one of those sky-scrapers built."
"All right, wife. Got the milliners to submit designs and competitive bids."—Louisville Courier-Jour-

CORNERSTONE

OF NEW METHODIST CHURCH AT
LOVE OAK.

Will Be Laid With Appropriate Ceremonies Tomorrow Afternoon—
The Pastor.

The cornerstone of the new Methodist church at Love Oak will be laid
by the pastor, the Rev. W. J. Naylor,
assisted by several visiting ministers,
on Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock.
The services will be conducted at the College hall, and then the congregation will adjourn and march to the building, where the beautiful Methodist ritual ceremony will be used in laying the stone. At the College hall
the Rev. G. T. Sullivan will deliver an address on "The Glory of Methodism" and the Rev. G. W. Hanks will speak on "The Church Building and Its Effects on the Community." The Rev. H. B. Terry will give a short history of the Methodist church at Love Oak.

At the building the Rev. G. W.
Hanks will lead the ritual prayer and the Rev. G. T. Sullivan will read the sentences. The Rev. T. J. Owen will place the stone and the Rev. H. B.
Terry will pronounce the benediction.
The Pastor, W. J. Naylor, will be master of ceremonies.

FOR THE LADIES.

In Sunday's Post-Dispatch and Chicago Tribune there will appear a new
feature, especially for the women folk
and young ladies. Don't fail to get a
copy, as you will appreciate the feature in question.

Missing Men.

"You keep in touch with the world
do you, Oscar? It is commendable."
"I take a Washington paper. It relates the minutiae, and I can see where the regiments are moving and
whether my old captain is yet out of the hospital and what happened to my lieutenant in his court martial about
the pay accounts, time must observe
the world—yes. At the postoffice back there." He jerked his head to indicate—
"It is against the law to sell whisky in a postoffice, so that storekeeper with
the red nose and small yellow eyes
keeps it in a brown jug in the back room."

"To be sure," laughed Armitage. "I hope it is a good article."
"It is vile," replied Oscar. "His brother makes it up in the hills, and
it is as strong as wood-lice."
"Goodness! I have heard of it. We must have some for rainy days."
It was a new world to John Armitage,
and his heart was as light as the
morning air as he followed Oscar along the muddy mountain road. He was in Virginia, and somewhere on this soil,
perhaps in some valley, he had
through which he rode, Shirley Clal-
borne had gazed upon blue distances,
with ridge rising against ridge, and
dark blue covered slopes like these he saw for the first time. He had left his affairs in Washington in a sorry muddle,
but he faced the new day with a
buoyant spirit and did not trouble himself to look very far ahead. He had a definite business before him. His explains were concerning on that point.
The fact that he was in a sense
a fugitive did not trouble him in the least. He had no intention of allowing John Chamberlain's assassins to kill him
or of being locked up in a Washington jail as the false Baron Klausel. If he admitted that he was not John Ar-mitage it would be difficult to prove that he was anybody else—a fact which Chamberlain probably knew perfectly well.

On the whole, he was satisfied that he had followed the wisest course thus
far. The broad panorama of the morning hills communicated to his spirit a growing elation. He began singing in German a ballad that recalled the sorrows of a pale maiden pining in a dark tower on the Rhine, whence her true knight rescued her after many
and perilous adventures. On the last
stave he ceased abruptly, and an ex-
clamation of wonder broke from him.
They had been riding along a narrow trail that afforded, as Oscar said, a short cut across a long timbered ridge,
that lay between them and Armitage's property. The path was rough and steep, and the low hanging pine boughs
and heavy undergrowth increased the difficulty of ascent. Striding to the top, a new valley, hidden until now,
was disclosed in long and beautiful
vistas.

Armitage dropped the reins upon the
neck of his panting horse.
"It is a fine valley—yes!" added Oscar.

"It is a possession worthy of the noblest gods!" replied Armitage. "There is a white building with red columns away over there. Is it the house of the reigning deity?"
"It is not, sir," answered Oscar, who spoke English with a kind of elegant precision, giving equal value to all words. "It is a vast hotel where the

and the consumption of unripe
fruits by those whose systems and stomachs are not in a healthy condition.

The many ills that come during
the hot, sultry weather can be avoided by keeping the body strong
and healthy with Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, the great body-builder.

If all were more careful to keep
the system in a vigorous, healthy
condition the germs of these diseases could not obtain a foothold.
Leading doctors agree that Duffy's
Pure Malt Whiskey has no equal as a destroyer of poisonous germs in the body. It is endorsed by Clergymen of every faith, nurses and doctors of all schools, as a positive cure
for dyspepsia, indigestion, nervous
prostration, all diseases of the throat and lungs, every form of
stomach trouble, malaria, chills,
fever and all run-down weakened,
diseased conditions of the body,
brain and muscle. It is a heart
tonic, blood purifier and promoter
of health and long life; makes the
old hale and hearty; the young vigorous and strong.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is
an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used
to have every kernel thoroughly
malted, thus destroying the germ
and producing a predigested liquid
food in the form of a malt essence,
which is the most effective tonic
stimulant and invigorant known to science; softened by warmth and
moisture its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

If weak and run down, take a tea-
spoonful four times a day in half
a glass of milk or water.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is
sold throughout the world by druggists, grocers and dealers, or
shipped direct for $1.00 per bottle.
In need of advice, write
Consulting Physician, Duffy Malt Whiskey Company, Rochester, New York, stating your case fully. Our doctors will send you advice free,
together with a handsome illustrated, medical booklet containing
some of the many thousands of gratifying letters received from
men and women in all walks of life, both old and young, who have been cured and benefited by the use of the World's greatest medicine.

rich spend in money. That place at the foot of the hills—do you see? It is there they play a foolish game with sticks and little balls."

"Golf? Is it possible?"
"There is no doubt of it, sir. I have seen the fools myself—men and women. The place is called Storm valley."
Armitage slipped his thigh sharply.
"You are probably right, Oscar."
I have heard of the place. And those houses that lie beyond there in the valley
belong to gentlemen of taste and
leisure who drink the waters and ride
horses and play the foolish game you
describe with little white balls."

"I could not tell it better," responded Oscar, who had dismounted, like a good trooper, to rest his horse.
"And our place is it below there?"
demanded Armitage.

"It is not, sir. It lies to the west.
But a man may come here when he is lonesome and look at the people and the gentlemen's houses. At night it is a pleasure to see the lights, and sometimes, when the wind is right, there is music of bands."

"Poor Oscar!" laughed Armitage.
His mood had not often in his life
been so high.
On his flight northward from Washington and southward down the Atlantic coast, the thought that Shirley Clal-
borne and her family must now believe
him an ignominious humbug wrought
mischief and pain in his heart, but
at least he would soon be near her—
even now she might be somewhere below in the lovely valley, and he drew
off his hat and stared down upon what
was glorified and enchanted ground.

"Let us go," he said presently.
Oscar saluted, standing bridle in hand.

FOR THE LADIES.

In Sunday's Post-Dispatch and Chi-
cago Tribune there will appear a new
feature, especially for the women folk
and young ladies. Don't fail to get a
copy, as you will appreciate the feature in question.

Darglers broke into the residence
of James H. McEwen, colored,
Eight and Adams streets, last night
and stole articles. A silver watch, a soft hat, and a small amount of money have been missed. No clew could be given the police but they are at work on the case.

TOBACCO NEWS

Louisville Tobacco Market.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 29.—The Louisville Tobacco Warehouse company issued the following review of
the leaf tobacco market:

"The sales on our market for one week, including today, amounted to 539 hogheads, divided as follows:
Burley, 298; dark, 111."

"Burley.—The market continues to pursue the even tenor of its way. The small offerings and the unusually small stocks that are available for future offerings do not call forth any
eager demand, and prices remain
practically unchanged. The present requirements of the trade seem with-
in the bounds of the supply, and
there seems no disposition to anticipate the results that may follow the
unprecedented curtailment in the burley crop."

"Dark.—The market for this week
for all grades of dark tobaccos, both
of the fired and unfired types, may be described as 'placid,' and as compared with last week without any change worth of note."

Regarding Damaged Tobacco.
All damaged tobacco stored in this district is being resampled at the warehouses and will be regraded and resold offered for sale. Types from a surrounding towns, where sales are
made for the warehouses at Paducah,
are receding in types, while the damaged hogheads stored in Paducah
warehouses are being regraded.

It is claimed that there is less
damaged tobacco stored in Paducah
than at any point in the district and that the farmers will not suffer very great losses on that account. Things are quite different at Weikiffe, Murray and other places, and there are
hogheads which tobacco manufacturers say they cannot use and the only buyer left is the snuff manufacturer.

The Cantata, "Victory Divine," Organ Recital.

For the fifth and last program in the series of Gilbert-Reddick testimonial organ recitals at the First Christian church next Thursday evening, September 3, the beautiful cantata, "Victory Divine," by J. Christopher Marks, will be given in entirety under the direction of Mr. Gilbert, in addition to a special program of requested organ selections. The cantata was given for the first time last summer at the New York Chautauqua and made a fine and lasting impression upon that distinguished assemblage. It was given its first local rendition at the Women's club several months ago under the direction of Miss Virginia Newell, and was so enthusiastically received that all music lovers will welcome its repetition with delight. Mr. Gilbert will be assisted by Miss Julia Scott, Mrs. D. M. Flournoy, Mrs. Geo. B. Hart, Miss Mayne Dryfus, Mrs. W. C. Gray, Messrs. Slade Mall, J. Frank Cheek and Emmet S. Hagby. The work is long (carefully rehearsed) and promises to bring to a fitting close, probably the most thoroughly enjoyable and artistically given recitals of this character ever given in Paducah, and that the efforts of Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Reddick are being substantially appreciated, is a matter of great satisfaction to their numerous friends and admirers. The recital will begin at 8:30 o'clock. No admission will be charged but a free will offering is made and given the organizers.

J. D. Marley sued Mrs. Mattie James for $201 due on a note.

In Bankruptcy.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed in federal court this morning by Walter C. Iverson and Abithal H. Wallace doing business under the firm name of Iverson & Wallace, at Seventh and Washington streets. The firm has owed a drug store for about two years. In the assets the fixtures are valued at $1,500 and the stock of drugs and chemicals at $4,500. The liabilities will amount to between $6,000 and $7,000. Among the heaviest creditors are the American German National bank for secured notes of $1,500, $200 and $180; H. H. Pinkney for notes of $1,000 and $500, and L. S. DuBois for $400. Many other dealers in Paducah and other cities are owed small sums.

The papers in the case of the Starks-Ulman Saddle company, in bankruptcy, were received from Louisville this morning by E. W. Bagby, referee in bankruptcy. On motion of the creditors Referee Bagby appointed H. H. Lovine receiver for the company until September 8, when a meeting of the creditors will be held and a trustee elected. The plant has ceased operations.

A motion was filed this morning in the bankruptcy case of the Register Newspaper company for the plant to be sold subject to the lien of the bond holders. Referee Bagby overruled the motion and the plant will be sold according to the orders of Judge McCall, on August 31.

Colored Boy Drowns

Leon Graham, a fourteen-year-old colored boy, was drowned yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock in the Ohio river at the foot of Trimble street. Graham was in swimming with other boys when he reached a stump, and his frightened companions ran out of the water without giving him aid. Graham lived at Tenth and Hubbard streets. The boy screamed for help, but before assistance could reach him he had drowned. White men dove for the body and used a spike pole in the effort to fish him out, but the efforts were fruitless. Until noon the river was dragged, but the body had not been recovered. Employees of the Paducah Pole and Timber company tried to locate the body, but did not succeed.

Olympic Champions

New York, Aug. 29.—Fully a hundred thousand participated in the demonstration in honor of the American winners in the Olympic games. Soldiers, marines, militia and athletes came from every part of the country were in the parade. Medals were bestowed at the city hall, where 50,000 gathered. When Hayes, the Marathon winner, was getting his medal his sister hugged and kissed him and the crowd cheered wildly.

Atlantic City Murder

Atlantic City, Aug. 29.—Robert is sinking and is expected to die tonight. Police are seeking an automobile statement. They hope he will admit he knows who shot him, even if he won't divulge the name. The police admit that Williams, under police examination, replied to a question: "Ask her husband, he ought to know." The police predict an important arrest soon.

CANDIDATES FOR JUDGE PRESENT JOINT DEBATE.

The first joint debate of the campaign was held last night at the county court house, when Circuit Judge William Reed and John G. Miller, Sr., candidates for circuit judge, spoke to a crowd of several hundred. There was much glister in the speeches and the crowd was furnished amusement and oratory by the speakers, who were clear in setting their views. Both pledged themselves to administer justice without fear or favor, if elected to the office. Both candidates are popular speakers, and they were roundly applauded by their adherents. Many other candidates were present, but the speaking was limited to the two candidates for circuit judge.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT LECTURE WILL BE EXCELLENT ONE.

The Rev. H. D. Smith, a brilliant young minister of Hopkinsville, will deliver an address at the First Christian church Wednesday night at 7:45 o'clock, and the membership of the church are asked to take advantage of the occasion and hear the address. Special music will be rendered by the choir with Prof. Harry Gilbert at the organ. A social session with attractive features will be held at conclusion of the lecture.

MOST EXTENSIVE AND COMPLETE SYSTEM OF PRIVATE COMMERCIAL SCHOOLS IN THE WORLD

"Brown's Business Colleges hold the highest awards
—Grand prizes and medals—from two World's Fairs"

Brown's Business Colleges, located in twenty leading cities of the Mississippi Valley, open their Fall Term Tuesday, September 1st, 1908. Special enrollment days: Saturday, August 29, and Monday, August 31st. These schools offer high grade instruction in the following courses:

The Business Course. The Shorthand and Typewriting Course.
The Combined Course (Bookkeeping and Stenographic).

Write today for our illustrated Handbook and a copy of our free Monthly Magazine. These tell you why Brown's is the best. Address the school nearest you.

Brown's Schools are located as follows:

Peoria, Illinois	Centralia, Illinois	Rock Island, Illinois
Lebanon, Illinois	Champaign, Illinois	Carthage, Illinois
Clintonburg, Illinois	Terre Haute, Indiana	Starkville, Illinois
Springfield, Illinois	St. Louis, Missouri	St. Louis, Missouri
Jacksonville, Illinois	St. Louis, Missouri	St. Louis, Missouri
Ottawa, Illinois	St. Louis, Missouri	St. Louis, Missouri
Rockford, Illinois	St. Louis, Missouri	St. Louis, Missouri

Selecting a school is easy if you consider only the best.

6,000 students a year bear witness to the excellence of our training.

The high standing of these schools has been established by forty years of successful work. Thousands of business positions, in these twenty cities, are open to our students every year. Their combined earnings run into the millions.

Better advantages at less cost than other schools—is our motto.

A Business Position or Free Tuition

What other school in the country will make the prospective student this offer and back it up with a written contract?

Any young man or woman who enrolls in any one of Brown's Schools at any time can make a contract, if such be desired, at the time of enrollment or later, that will secure to him or her the offer of a business position, as bookkeeper, stenographer, cashier, correspondent, clerk, or other office employment, with a reliable business establishment, within a specified time after his or her graduation in the Combined Course, or a refunding to him in cash of an amount equal to all tuition paid under the contract, provided that the course be completed within the period of two years from the date of enrollment.

The details of this contract, with full particulars of the course, its branches to be studied, grades required, to be made on each branch, a common chap. in a letter, will be sent free to any student. All who are interested in this special offer should write at once.

What are YOU going to do? Will you increase your earning powers by taking advantage of these Practical Courses or will you allow another year to pass on the same old lines?

Is not a bet worth you for the valuable education which this course will give you, through the slow and expensive school of experience? Is not what we offer you here a solid business experience, collected, classified, condensed, and crystallized for your benefit at a cost of thousands of dollars in time and money?

No matter what your work or future business may be, you need this knowledge and training. You will feel strong in your own strength, your confidence will tell you that you know how to do business in business in doing—you can meet any man face to face and take care of you interests in any transaction.

TAFT SURE WINNER; APATHY ONLY PERIL

Republican Leaders Fear For Overconfidence.

Walter Wellman Shows Immense
Gains Necessary to Give Victory to Democrats.

FIGURES OUT BAD FOR BRYAN.

(By Walter Wellman.)

The Record-Herald says: Confidence in the election of Judge Taft is very strong among the Republican leaders. Some of the best informed men in the country like President Roosevelt, Postmaster General Meyer and National Chairman Hitchcock tell me they believe the only danger lies in over-confidence and in the apathy which usually accompanies it. If the Republican voters throughout the north can be roused by a fear that Bryan is likely to win they believe a great majority of the so-called doubtful states will give their electoral votes to Judge Taft.

For this reason the most astute of the Republican leaders, from the president down, are not averse to the coming of what we generally call "a Republican scare" over Bryan's prospects. Indeed, they look upon an alarm and an awakening as a necessary prelude to Republican triumph in November. President Roosevelt and his advisers do not frown upon the publication of facts concerning minor factors of the campaign which make for Bryan. They do not look upon such publications as improper or hurtful—rather the contrary.

Men who make it their business, either as political leaders or observers, to study conditions in the nation as a whole know that the present campaign presents two dominant, salient aspects:

First—The country as shown by all elections of recent years, is normally overwhelmingly Republican.

Second—Certain factors are at work which tend toward diminution, and possibly in some states toward the disappearance, of Republican majorities.

In other words, there are more Republicans than Democrats in the country, and this is particularly true of the northern states, in which the presidential battle must be fought out. This normal Republican preponderance is a great, central, important fact. It may easily be a controlling fact. But it is a negative fact. It is an existing condition. Every one knows it. There is no news or particular interest in citing the figures which show it.

The News.

The news of the campaign, the matters of vital, real interest to every leader and every observer, are found in the other equation of the problem—in the factors which make toward change, toward weakening of the known Republican preponderance. This is why so much of the news and gossip of the campaign consists of information concerning those factors which hint of possible Democratic gains. Every one must recognize this fact and understand that such minor factors may be pointed out and discussed without at all conceding that they mean "revolution." That which every one wants to know, Republican as well as Democrat, is how far these minor factors promise to go in breaking down the stone walls of Republican majorities. If there are such factors, there is no campaign. If a great fortress is besieged, the news of the campaign consists not of statistics as to the strength of the defense, for these are known in advance, but as to the progress, if any, which the attacking columns are making. And the reports of the war correspondent must necessarily deal much more with the latter than with the former.

Republican confidence, of course, is based largely upon the magnificent physical strength of their fortress, upon their great normal preponderance in most of the states which the enemy must conquer if victory is to perch upon his banners. Let some observers should overlook the importance of this strength, of this existing condition, it is well to refresh the memory, for as the campaign goes on this static fact is one which must necessarily be often taken into consideration. 690 votes in 1900 McKinley had over Bryan 850,000. In a total vote of 13,500,000 in 1904 Roosevelt had over Parker 2,500,000. In the northern states alone, omitting the so-called "solid south" but including Missouri, Kentucky and Maryland, Roosevelt's plurality over Parker was 3,050,000. In 1900 Bryan carried only four northern states—Colorado, Idaho, Montana and Nevada—and in 1904 Parker carried no northern state. In 1906 237 representatives in congress were elected in the northern states, and only 47 of these were Democrats.

Since the presidential election of 1904 elections for governor or other officials have been held in 29 northern states, the Republicans carrying 25 states, with aggregate pluralities of $56,000, while the Democrats carried four states, with aggregate pluralities of $7,000.

Bryan's Task

The foregoing rapid survey of recent election results presents in vivid fashion the basis of Republican confidence in the success of their national ticket this year. It gives an idea of the magnitude of the task which lies before the Democrats in their efforts to bring about a revolution—of the great strength of the fortress which they are assailing. Looking over the figures, every fair-minded man will be forced to admit the task is a difficult one, though no one can say it is impossible. It seems more difficult, when we take into consideration another static factor, which is the party habit of a great majority of men. Just now it is the fashion to speak and write much of the independence of voters. It is just now a favorite notion with many observers that party ties rest more lightly than ever before on many citizens. This may be true as to a small proportion of them. It is true of a larger proportion in state or local elections. In national elections nine out of ten voters the country through adhere almost invariably to the party of their habitual choice. Revolutions are always possible, but the causes thereof must be strong ones. The scientific method of ascertaining how the country is going to vote in a national election is to do just what we are doing here. We have heard talk of an impending revolution in the west, but so far as the east is concerned they feel no anxiety. They say they will hold New York, Connecticut, New Jersey and Delaware without any trouble. Their confidence in the national result is based upon their knowledge of the great losses they could suffer in the west and still win. Holding the east without a break, the Republicans figure that the absolutely sure electoral votes for Taft are as follows:

Connecticut ..... 7
Delaware ..... 3
Maine ..... 3
Massachusetts ..... 16
Michigan ..... 17
New Hampshire ..... 4
New Jersey ..... 12
New York ..... 39
North Dakota ..... 4
Oregon ..... 4
Pennsylvania ..... 34
Rhode Island ..... 3
Utah ..... 3
Vermont ..... 4
West Virginia ..... 7
Wyoming ..... 7

Total ..... 104
With this assured basis, Taft would need only 73 more votes. The Republican leaders will not admit that there is more than a faint shadow of doubt about the following states:

Ohio ..... 23
Illinois ..... 27
Iowa ..... 13
Wisconsin ..... 13
Kansas ..... 10
Maryland ..... 8
Minnesota ..... 11
South Dakota ..... 4
Washington ..... 5

Total ..... 114
And they believe Taft's chances are better than Bryan's in most of the following:

Indiana ..... 15
California ..... 10
Colorado ..... 5
Nebraska ..... 8
Idaho ..... 3
Montana ..... 3

Total ..... 44
The conclusion which eastern Republicans draw from this consideration of the situation is that nothing but a country-wide revolution or stupor of overconfidence on the part of the Republican masses can lead to Taft's defeat.

While it is admitted there is much to commend the foregoing estimates, careful and neutral observers will withhold their judgment till the campaign has further developed and they shall have an opportunity to make painstaking investigation over a wide area.

TRYING TO PATCH UP DIFFICULTY BETWEEN LEADERS.

New Connors Has It Figured Out That
Bryan Will Win by 100,000—
And He Is Confident.

New York, Aug. 29.—National Chairman Norman E. Mack and State Chairman William E. Connors, of the Democratic party, held an important conference here today over the situation in New York state and with special reference to the differences now existing between Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, and Senator Pat H. McCarrren, of Kings county. Since his arrival here from the west Mr. Mack had a talk with Mr. Murphy and sought to arrange a settlement of the differences now existing between Mr. Murphy and Senator McCarrren.

It is hoped by Democratic leaders that Chairman Mack will succeed in effecting a truce between the two leaders until after the national election. Neither Mr. Mack or Mr. Connors would discuss any phase of the present efforts at settlement before going into conference. The organization of the eastern headquarters of the national committee is being rapidly completed and Mr. Mack conferred today with several committeemen from the east regarding the selection of an eastern chairman. While several names have been mentioned in connection with this office, Mr. Mack said today that no one had been determined upon.

After his conference with Mr. Mack State Chairman Connors opened the state headquarters at the Hoffman House. Mr. Connors said: "Bryan will carry the state by 100,000 plurality. I am confident of that."

Prisoners Pray Sincerely But With the Use of Slang Sometimes.

Recalling days in childhood when he knelt with his little head on his mother's knee, the horse thief, the embezzler, the murderer and the forger repeats the little prayer with which everyone is familiar. At times the prayers are of the prisoner's own composition, and often they are crude and full of slang, but apparently sincere.

"Now I lay me down to sleep,"
"I pray the Lord my soul to keep,"
"If I should die before I wake,"
"I pray the Lord my soul to take."

That simple prayer of childhood days was heard murmuring out of a prisoner's cell last night at the courthouse. According to the officers at the house this is not an uncommon thing. In fact there are several prisoners in this county institution who read the Bible constantly, and now and then are ministers. After meditating day after day upon the crimes they have committed men who have never prayed before, give way to their feelings and drop down on their knees. It is their desire to get their sinners to someone. Most of the prisoners have Bibles or access to them, and often the ignorant prisoners will be found eagerly listening to reading of the chapters. Disposed in religion do not arise there. Few have any doctrinal opinions.

HAS NO IDEA ENTERING FIGHT FOR CONGRESS IN SEVENTH.

So Desire His Friends, Who Think
Castell's Friends Started Story
Because Castell Is Lashing Ground.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 29.—Just how the report stated the ex-governor Beckham would be a candidate for congress in this district is not known, and no one has yet been able to ascertain who would be benefited by such a report. Governor Beckham himself has been away from the city for several days, but his close friends say there is absolutely no truth in the report. It is true that the ex-governor and Campbell Castell have not been on friendly terms politically for several years and it may be that Castell's friends, having an idea that Beckham might announce himself in an endeavor to defeat Castell, started the rumor for the purpose of positively ascertaining what Beckham intended to do. The district contains eight counties—Houffon, Fayette, Franklin, Henry, Odham, Owen and Woodford—and county mass conventions will be held next Saturday to select delegates to the district convention the following week. W. P. Kimball, the present congressman of Fayette county, and J. Campbell Castell, of Scott county, are the only candidates for the Democratic nomination.
